Sec. 13-422. - Residential zoning districts.

Residential districts. These districts identify and provide for lands which are suitable for residential uses. Unless specified otherwise in this chapter, in rural residential zoning districts, the numeric value in the district title generally denotes the minimum parcel size allowed, in acres. In residential zones, the numeric value denotes the maximum number of dwelling units allowed per gross acre. The letter "C" following the designation denotes that only conventional construction and class A manufactured homes are allowed. The letter "M" denotes that class A and B manufactured homes are allowed in addition to conventional construction.

(1)

Rural Residential Districts (RR5, RR5C, RR2.5, RR2.5C, RR1, RR1C). The purpose and intent of the single-family rural residential zoning districts is to provide a range of densities, promote a rural residential atmosphere where families, depending on the district, may reside in one (1) conventional or Class A or B mobile home dwelling unit per parcel and grow food and keep livestock for domestic use, and also to provide a buffer between agricultural and higher density residential uses, see Table 13-431A for permitted uses.

Important Information Regarding Code Compliance Hearings

1. Please be advised that even if the violation contained in the Statement of Violation has been corrected prior to the time set forth for the scheduled hearing, the violation may still be heard and action taken.
2. You may have witnesses subpoenaed to testify on your behalf. If you wish subpoenas issued, please contact the Building Department at (352) 689-4460 at least (7) days prior to the scheduled hearing date and give the name and address of persons to be subpoenaed. You will be responsible for having the subpoenas properly served and paying for any costs incurred.
3. For your information, hearings shall be conducted as follows:
 - a. The Statement of Violations will be read.
 - b. The alleged violator will be asked if he/she wishes to contest the charges.
 - c. If the charges are not contested, the Special Master may issue an Order directing compliance or authorize further civil or criminal proceedings pursuant to Sumter County Ordinance 08-2.
 - d. If the charges are contested, Code Compliance shall present its case and the alleged violator shall present his or her case. The case shall be presented by an attorney, or by the Inspector, or other member of staff. The alleged violator's case may be presented by him/herself, an attorney, or other representative chosen by the alleged violator.
 - e. The parties may call witnesses and all witnesses shall be sworn. All testimony shall be under oath and shall be recorded by the Secretary present.
 - f. Formal rules of evidence shall not apply, but fundamental due process shall be observed and govern all proceedings. Minutes shall be kept of all hearings, and all hearings and proceedings shall be open to the public.
 - g. Both parties may cross-examine witnesses and present rebuttal evidence.
 - h. The Special Master may call, question, and take testimony from the Inspector, alleged violator, and any witness.
 - i. After all evidence has been submitted, the Special Master shall close the presentation of evidence.
 - j. Any order to comply shall contain Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law based on the evidence of record, and shall include an order. The decision shall be announced as an oral order at the hearing and shall be reduced to writing and mailed to all parties.
 - k. If the Special Master finds for a violation, its written order shall be issued as an Order To Comply. Such order shall establish a date certain for compliance and further action to be taken if the deadline for compliance is not met. In determining corrective and punitive actions, the Special Master shall consider the following factors:
 - 1) The gravity of the violation.
 - 2) Any actions taken by the violator to correct the violation.
 - 3) Any previous violations committed by the violator.
