HISTORY/FACTS/ISSUES:

On September 9, 2008, the Sumter County Board of County Commissioners (BOCC) adopted the initial Sumter County Purchasing Policies and Procedures. These additional updates are to meet the requirements of the Sumter County Triennial Review conducted by the Florida Department of Transportation.

The major revisions to the Sumter County Purchasing Policies for BOCC review and approval are listed below (links are provided for further review of documents):

- Sumter County will adhere to the Florida Department of Transportation's Procurement Guidance for Transit Agencies (when applicable).
- Federally assisted projects will adhere to 2 CFR 200.317-200.327.
- When applicable, the FTA Circular 4220.1F, Third Party Contracting Guide will be used in contracting of federal awards or subawards.

Attached is the revised Sumter County Purchasing Policies for BOCC review and approval.
