EXHIBIT A

Amendment to the Smarsh Service Agreement – General Terms

This first amendment (“Amendment”) to the Smarsh Service Agreement - General Terms amends the Agreement between Smarsh Inc. and Sumter County Government Emergency Management. This Amendment is effective on the date the Client signs the Order Form, to which this Amendment is attached as Exhibit A.

The parties agree:

1) Replace Section 1 in its entirety, as follows:

1. Services.

- 1.1. Smarsh will provide the Services specified in each Order Form ("Services"), according to the Agreement, the Service Specific Terms (including the applicable Service Level Agreement(s)), and the Service Descriptions, which describe the features and functionality of each Service. The Service Specific Terms and Service Descriptions are located at www.smarsh.com/legal. Smarsh grants Client a revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited license to access and use the Services purchased by Client during the Term (as defined in Section 12).
- 1.2. Public Records. To the extent required by the Florida Public Records Act, Chapter 119, Florida Statutes, Smarsh shall maintain and allow access to (via Client) Public Records made or received in conjunction with the Agreement. The Agreement may be terminated for cause by Client for Smarsh’s refusal to allow access (via Client) to Public Records. “Public Records” means and includes those items specified in Florida Statutes Section 119.011(12), as amended from time to time, and currently defined as: All documents, papers, letters, maps, books, tapes, photographs, films, sound recordings, data processing software, or other material, regardless of the physical form, characteristics, or means of transmission, made or received pursuant to law or ordinance or in connection with the transaction of official business. Public Records under this Agreement include emails exchanged between Smarsh and Client representatives, the terms of this Agreement, all Client invoices, and, if applicable to the Services purchased by Client, supplier and subcontractor invoices and contracts. During the Term, and for a period of 7 days following any expiration or termination of the Agreement, Client may, at no additional cost, export records via self-service within the Archiving Platform. If instead, the Client’s custodian of public records requests that Smarsh complete the export on Client’s behalf, Smarsh shall provide the Client with a copy of the requested records for export within a reasonable time at a cost that does not exceed Smarsh’s then-current hourly professional services rate for data extraction and exportation plus any hardware costs for portable media. All data so provided to Client may be provided in PST, EML, or native format, at Client’s option. Smarsh is not a public-facing company and does not receive or process Public Records requests.

The Initial Term may be renewed by Client for additional, successive 12-month terms (each a "Renewal Term") upon the execution of a Renewal Order Form. The Initial Term plus any Renewal Term are, collectively, the "Term." Any Order Form executed after the Effective Date will co-terminate with Client's then-current Term.

4) Replace Section 6.2 in its entirety, as follows:

Termination for Breach. Either party may terminate this Agreement if the other party materially breaches its obligations under this Agreement and such breach remains uncured for a period of 30 days following the non-breaching party's written notice thereof. Smarsh may suspend Client's access to the Services in the event Client fails to pay undisputed Fees within 60 days after the due date, and Smarsh will not be liable for any damages resulting from such suspension.

5) Replace Section 7 in its entirety, as follows:

Fees & Payment. Client will pay the fees for the Services as set forth in the Order Form ("Fees"). Following execution of the Order Form, Smarsh will activate or otherwise make available the Services listed in the Order Form by either delivering the software (if on-premise software is purchased) or providing Client with access to an account within the applicable Service ("Activation Date"). Beginning on the Activation Date, Client will be invoiced for the recurring Fees per the invoice schedule in the Order Form. One-time fees and fees for professional services will be invoiced per the terms of the Order Form, or the applicable statement of work. Client will pay undisputed Fees within forty-five (45) days of the date of the invoice in accordance with Section 218.74, Florida Statutes (the "Prompt Payment Act"). If Client disputes any Fees, Client must notify Smarsh within 120 days of the date of invoice. Invoices not disputed within 120 days from the date of invoice will be deemed accepted by Client. In accordance with the Prompt Payment Act, beginning 30 days after the payment due date, Smarsh may charge a late fee of 1% per month on any unpaid Fees. Smarsh may suspend Client's access to the Services in the event Client fails to pay undisputed Fees within 60 days after the due date, and Smarsh will not be liable for any damages resulting from such suspension. Smarsh may increase Fees at any time after the Initial Term, provided that the increased Fees will only become effective upon the commencement of the next Renewal Term following Smarsh's notice to Client of the Fee increase."

Obligations with Respect to Confidential Information. Each party agrees: (a) that it will not disclose to any third party, or use for the benefit of any third party, any Confidential Information disclosed to it by the other party except as expressly permitted by this Agreement; and (b) that it will use at least reasonable measures to maintain the confidentiality of Confidential Information of the other party in its possession or control but no less than the measures it uses to protect its own confidential information. Either party may disclose Confidential Information of the other party: (i) pursuant to the order or requirement of a court, administrative or regulatory agency, or other governmental body, provided that the receiving party, if feasible and/or legally permitted to do so, gives reasonable notice to the disclosing party to allow the disclosing party to contest such order or requirement; (ii) to the parties' agents, representatives, subcontractors or service providers who have a need to know such information provided that such party shall be under obligations of confidentiality at least as restrictive as those contained in this Agreement; or (iii) pursuant to a Florida public records request, provided that the Client gives notice to Smarsh in a reasonable amount of time to allow Smarsh the opportunity to seek a protective order preventing such disclosure. Each party will promptly notify the other party in writing upon becoming aware of any unauthorized use or disclosure of the other party's Confidential Information.

8) Replace Section 13.1 in its entirety, as follows:

Client Indemnification. To the extent permitted by Section 768.28 Florida Statutes, and without in any manner waiving its rights to sovereign immunity or increasing the limits of liability thereunder, Client will defend, indemnify and hold harmless Smarsh, its officers, directors, employees and agents, from and against all claims, losses, damages, liabilities and expenses (including fines, penalties, and reasonable attorneys' fees), arising from or related to the content of Client Data and Client's breach of the Service Specific Terms or Sections 4.2, 4.3, 4.4, 4.5, or 15.1 of this Agreement. Smarsh will (a) provide Client with prompt written notice upon becoming aware of any such claim; except that Client will not be relieved of its obligation for indemnification if Smarsh fails to provide such notice unless Client is actually prejudiced in defending a claim due to Smarsh's failure to provide notice in accordance with this Section 13.1(a); (b) allow Client sole and exclusive control over the defense and settlement of any such claim; and (c) if requested by Client, and at Client's expense, reasonably cooperate with the defense of such claim

10) Replace Section 15.9 in its entirety, as follows:

Entire Agreement; Electronic Signatures. This Agreement is the entire agreement between the parties with respect to its subject matter, and supersedes any prior or contemporaneous agreements, negotiations, and communications, whether written or oral, regarding such subject matter. Smarsh expressly rejects all terms contained in Client's purchase order documents, or in electronic communications between the parties, and such terms form no part of this Agreement. The parties agree that electronic signatures, whether digital or encrypted, give rise to a valid and enforceable agreement. This Agreement may only be modified, or any rights under it waived, by a written document executed by both parties.
